Verification checklist and notes

Use these questions to compare the timing model with known events. A rectified birth time may improve timing when several events consistently fall outside their expected windows.

☐ Did a significant career and status event cluster within one of the listed career and status windows?

☐ Did a significant marriage and partnership event cluster within one of the listed marriage and partnership windows?

☐ Did a significant children event cluster within one of the listed children windows?

☐ Did a significant education event cluster within one of the listed education windows?

☐ Did a significant foreign travel and settlement event cluster within one of the listed foreign travel and settlement windows?

Method and disclaimer

This deterministic report applies the seven Chara Karaka scheme, sign-based Jaimini aspects, Arudha calculations, selected Vargas and K. N. Rao-style Chara Dasha timing to the chart supplied. Astrology is interpretive guidance, not a substitute for legal, medical, financial or psychological advice. Timing windows describe symbolic activation, not guaranteed events.
