HAND TYPE & VEDIC CORRELATION

Hand type: Earth hand

Dominant element: Earth

This element gives you a grounded and reliable nature. You prefer tangible results over abstract theories and you value hard work.

The mount below your middle finger is firm and well developed. This shows that you are disciplined and take your duties very seriously.

MAJOR PALM LINES

Heart Line - Straight and steady affection

Your heart line is quite straight and ends between the first and second fingers. This shows a very sensible approach to love and friendship. You do not let your emotions cloud your judgement. You seek a partner who is reliable and shares your practical values. You are loyal once you commit your heart to someone. You may find it hard to express soft feelings openly at times. You prefer to show love by providing comfort and security for your family. Your emotional life is stable and lacks unnecessary drama.

Head Line - Practical and focused logic

Your head line is clear and runs across the palm with a slight curve. This indicates a mind that is very focused on the present moment. You have excellent concentration and a talent for technical details. You learn best through doing and observing rather than just reading. Your decisions are based on past experiences and proven facts. You are not easily swayed by the opinions of others. You have a realistic view of your own abilities. This line shows that you are a pragmatic thinker who values common sense above all else.

Life Line - Deep vitality and family connection

Your Life Line shows a deep and clear curve around the thumb mount. This indicates a strong physical constitution and a very deep connection to your home roots. The line is solid in your early years. Around age 28 to 30, a small upward branch suggests a significant personal achievement or a move. Your energy levels remain steady throughout your middle years. A secondary inner line, known as the Mars line, offers you extra protection during stressful times. This mark shows you have great resilience. You recover quickly from setbacks. The wide sweep of the line suggests you possess a generous and warm heart. You value your family stability above all else.

Fate Line - Steady progress through self-effort

Your Fate Line starts clearly from the base of the palm. It shows that you took responsibility for your life at a young age. There is a slight shift in the line near the middle of the palm. This represents a change in your career path around age 35. You likely moved toward a more independent role at this time. The line strengthens as it crosses the Head Line. This proves that your logic and planning lead to professional success. You are not someone who relies on luck alone. Your hard work builds a very secure foundation. The path becomes clearer and more defined as you enter your fifties.

Sun Line - Internal satisfaction and steady growth

Your Sun Line is subtle but grows stronger near the Heart Line. This suggests that your true recognition comes later in life. You are a person who prefers quality over fame. You find joy in your creative hobbies and personal projects. People respect you for your integrity and calm nature. Around age 45, you will notice a boost in your social standing. This brings a sense of inner peace and contentment. Your light shines brightest when you are helping others. You do not need to seek the spotlight. The spotlight will naturally find you because of your consistent and honest efforts in your community.

Marriage & Minor Lines - Devotion and travel opportunities

The relationship lines on the side of your palm are deep and horizontal. This shows a long term and committed partnership based on mutual respect. You value loyalty and deep emotional bonds. There are fine lines traveling from the base of the palm towards the mount of the Moon. These suggest significant journeys across water or to distant lands. You will gain much wisdom from these travels. Your health lines are faint. This is a good sign of a balanced lifestyle. Small stress lines are present but they do not cross your main lines. You have the mental strength to keep your worries from affecting your physical health.
