Selected palace · 离 9

九天 Heaven (favourable). Expansion, travel and bold advance; rise, publicise and go far.

天心 Heart (favourable). Leadership, strategy, medicine and healing; the star of the doctor and the planner.

开门 Open (favourable). Opening, career, official matters and new ventures; the door of work and promotion.

Heaven stem 壬 over earth stem 己. The heaven stem is the moving influence; the earth stem is the fixed ground it meets.

门制 The palace restrains the door. The door's effect is held back and results come slowly.

用神 Querent and useful gods

The person asking is represented by the day stem 辛 in 巽 4. Your position is under strain; establish firmer footing before pushing forward.

Work and position (Open door)

Falls in 离 9 (South), with the Open door, Heart star and Heaven deity. The relation is 我生, you feed the matter. You pour energy and resources out. Progress is possible but costs more than you expect.

Boss or authority (Chief)

Falls in 巽 4 (Southeast), with the Fear door, Pillar star and Chief deity. The relation is 比和, same element. You and the matter stand on equal footing; the outcome depends on your own effort and on peers.

Timing and action

This is Yin Dun (descending); consolidation, review and quiet preparation are naturally supported. Void branches 辰巳 can indicate delay. The strongest direction is South (离 9).

起局 How this chart was computed

1. Solar term. Apparent solar longitude 181.522° places the moment in 秋分 (Autumn Equinox).
2. Four pillars. The 23:00 day boundary and five-rat hour rule give 丙午 丁酉 辛丑 丁酉.
3. Yuan. Fu Tou 己亥 sets 中元 (Middle).
4. Dun and Ju. The solar term and Yuan give 阴遁1局.
5. Earth plate. 戊己庚辛壬癸丁丙乙 are laid backward from palace 1.
6. Hour Xun. 丁酉 belongs to 甲午; hidden 甲 rides 辛 in palace 7.
7. Heaven plate. 天柱 moves to palace 4 and the stars rotate with it.
8. Doors. 惊门 reaches palace 4 and the other doors rotate with it.
9. Deities. They proceed counter-clockwise from the Chief.
10. Markers. Void, travelling horse, door-palace relations, stem punishment and stem patterns are applied.
