

Your Western Astrology Report

Bhavya · Born 11 December 1990 at 04:40 in New Delhi, National Capital Territory of Delhi, India

How to read this report. Western astrology looks at where the Sun, Moon and planets stood at the exact moment you were born. The first half describes you and your chart. The second half is a forecast for a chosen date range. Each part names the months it covers, so you always know which period is meant. None of this is fixed fate. Treat it as a map for reflection and timing.

1. What each planet means

Sun	your core self, identity and vitality - who you are at heart and what lights you up
Moon	your emotions, instincts and needs - your moods and what makes you feel safe
Mercury	your mind and communication - how you think, learn, speak and decide
Venus	love, money and pleasure - what you value and how you relate to people
Mars	energy, drive and courage - how you act and go after what you want
Jupiter	growth, luck and opportunity - where life expands and feels meaningful
Saturn	discipline, duty and lessons - where you must work hard and build slowly
Uranus	change, freedom and originality - where life brings surprises
Neptune	dreams, imagination and faith - where you feel inspired but can also be foggy
Pluto	deep change and power - where life brings endings and rebirth
Rising sign	your outward personality and the first impression you make
Midheaven	your career point and public standing

2. Your chart at a glance

Your Rising sign is Scorpio and your Midheaven, the career point, is in Leo. For each planet the sign shows the style and the house shows the area of life it works through.
